

In the unlikely event of a tyre failure the following advice should be followed

1. Empty the contents of the tanker by transferring the load to another similar tanker.
2. Employ the services of a commercial tyre fitter to repair the damage on site.